RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

A light blue horizontal bar spanning the width of the page, positioned below the title.

Version: 20 April 2022

Role of Committee

The Committee has been established by the Board to assist the Board by providing objective oversight of the implementation and operation of Tyro's risk management framework.

The responsibilities of the Committee include:

- advising the Board on Tyro's overall current and future risk appetite and risk management strategy;
- oversight with an organisational-wide view of Tyro's current and future risk position relative to its risk appetite and capital strength;
- advising the Board in relation to its annual declaration to APRA on risk management;
- oversight of management's implementation of the risk management strategy;
- constructive challenge of management's proposals and decisions on all aspects of risk management arising from Tyro's activities;
- reviewing the performance and setting the objectives of Tyro's Chief Risk Officer (CRO), and ensuring the CRO has unfettered access to the Board and the Committee; and
- oversight and prior endorsement of the appointment and removal of the CRO.

Membership

Composition of Committee

The Committee will:

- be appointed and removed by the Board;
- be of sufficient size, independence and technical expertise to discharge its mandate effectively;
- consist of at least 3 non executive directors, the majority of whom must be independent;
- have an independent Chair, who is not Chair of the Board and who will be appointed and can be removed by the Board; and
- appoint a chair for any meeting of the Committee where the Chair of the Committee is absent.

Ceasing to be a member of the Committee

A person will cease to be a member of the Committee if:

- the person gives reasonable notice in writing to the Committee Chair of the person's resignation as a member of the Committee;
- the Committee Chair, with approval of the Board, gives the person notice in writing that the person is to cease to be a member of the Committee; or
- the person ceases to be a Director, in which case the person automatically ceases to be a member of the Committee.

Secretary

The Committee will have a secretary, which is to be the Company Secretary or such other person as nominated by the Board (Committee Secretary). The Committee Secretary will attend all Committee meetings.

Chief Risk Officer

The CRO has direct access to the Risk Committee on matters pertaining to the Risk Management Framework and may meet with the Committee without other members of management present.

Meetings & Authority

Meetings

The Committee will meet often enough to undertake its role effectively. The Chair will call a meeting of the Committee if requested to do so by any member of the Committee or by the Chair of the Board. The quorum for any meeting will be 2 members.

The internal auditor, CRO and Chief Financial Officer are required to attend all Risk Committee meetings in an advisory and reporting capacity unless their attendance would be inappropriate. The Committee may invite such other persons including Tyro employees, external service providers, external advisors or consultants to its meetings, as it deems necessary, whether on a permanent or ad hoc basis.

Unless otherwise prescribed in this Charter, the rules governing the meetings and resolutions (including written resolutions) of the Board shall apply to the Committee, with such changes considered necessary. The proceedings of all meetings will be minuted and these will be included in the papers for the next Committee meeting.

Authority

The Committee has all of the power necessary to enable it to perform its functions.

The authority of the Committee is derived from:

- Tyro's Constitution;
- this Charter; and
- separate Board delegations, resolutions and approvals.

The Committee has the authority to conduct or direct any investigation required to fulfil its responsibilities. In doing so it has free and unfettered access to senior management, risk and financial control personnel and other parties (internal and external).

The Committee may obtain outside legal, compliance, risk management or other professional advice as it determines necessary to carry out its responsibilities and has the power to do so in a manner that ensures that the engagement, including the advice received is independent.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to individuals and to sub-committees made up of Committee members or others. Any sub-committee will have the full power of authority delegated to it and must report to the Committee in relation to matters arising in the exercise of that authority.

The Committee will be available to meet with APRA on request.

Duties and responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee are further particularised in this section.
